RESULTS

Now count how often you ticked each colour.

On the next page, you can read the result for the colour you selected the most. Or is there a tie? No clear trend in one direction? Well, in that case, we'll congratulate you: You are a really unique girl that is one-of-a-kind in the STAG. For the singing bunch you would definitely be an enormous asset!

Emma

Just like Emma you're the perfect Lovefool mix: Simply to fall for. In order to save your beloved, you cook comfort-broth by the gallon and run through half the city in magic sneakers, but don't anyone dare to try and pinch your cocoa from the vending machine, or the gloves come off and the terrier teeth are bared. Even if your family hangs around in front of your door again all day long and gets on your nerves, you're still a social person and always anxious for harmony. Maybe you should listen to the freaky buddies and optimistic world citizens near you more often and bang your red ears on the table with greater confidence.

Jenny

Whabaam! You're just as tough as Jenny. You're nobody's fool (except maybe a lovefool, but that's a different story): Picking locks, necromancy, party trips to Goa - all child's play. Your special breakfast croissants are legendary, but it would be nice if your awful memory for names could remember who you are actually serving them to. If you use a little more fabric softener for your hard shell every once in a while, your funky leggings collection might just become lucky and share the laundry basket with some plaid shirts soon.

Luzi

You are a born leader who keeps the troops in line and passionately fights to make all her dreams come true. Wearing pieces of meat, putting on a poker face? No matter how gaga your day gets, down-to-earthness and loyalty are your number one characteristics. Without hesitation you lend your bathtub, vacate your bed for pillow fights and if a good friend of yours wants to cause a bit of jealousy, you are willing to offer some lips. You're such a character - just like Luzi. Stay the way you are, or maybe get a better personal organizer. That way, juggling charity concerts with television appearances won't be a problem anymore in the future.

Caro

Barbie on the outside, bitch on the inside? Nonsense! As a matter of fact, you can be very funny and you don't always need really cheap booze for that. Of course, you clearly are in the Caro business. Glitter outfits, fruitarian menu, cheating in exams, video shoot double? No problem, agent Kira is a real organisational genius. You should probably bake some smaller cake pieces from time to time or try not to crack open your boss's most expensive champagne bottles. That way it will surely work out with your dream career and your fellow human beings will realize that you can actually be pretty friendly.

Sophie

In the future, you ought to listen more to your own voice - and the one of your inner guinea pig. You're neither a Christmas tree that needs to be decorated with shiny ornaments nor a tinsel angel who flies about high as a kite. Remember your strengths and hidden talents: Someone who can hide in boiler rooms for days without being detected by janitors or headmistresses and can also comb through a whole continent in no time at all while searching for a missing person, is rather sophi(e)sticated.
